RE: Mirjam Lepp

Mirjam Lepp was a valued member of the 16th annual Miami Fashion Week volunteer staff for the 2014 event. As a volunteer, Mirjam served in various supporting positions including dresser, production assistant and a variety of back stage and front of house operations.

Ms. Lepp is extremely well organized and handled all aspects of the assigned duties with a calm and professional manner assisting everyone in any capacity that was requested and was a valued member of the Miami Fashion Week team.

I personally recommend Mirjam be considered for any position where leadership skills, organization and professionalism are required as she is well suited for any task.

Sincerely,

Founder / President
Miami Fashion Week
